Don Robers will be ordained a permanent deacon on Jan. 29, 2005. There will be a reception for Don after each Mass on the weekend of Jan. 29/30. Please help by signing the paper in the parish hall for planning purposes.

The Right to Life March and Program were well attended by our parishioners. It looked as though St. John people were about 70% of the participants.

The Ordination Mass for the Permanent Diaconate is open to all. Early arrival would be wise. There is ample parking in the area. Mass is at 10:00am. There will be no 8:00am Mass here that day.

FACT: The doors of the U.S. Supreme Court courtroom have the Ten Commandments engraved on the entrance doors.

Congratulations to Vic & Steffie Sette, who celebrated 65 years of marriage on Jan. 13, 2005. Steffie is a resident of Logan Health Care, if you wish to send a card.

The little white goat blends in with the snow. He enjoyed the annual Winter Walk in the Hocking Hills State Park, including sunshine and cocoa. Being agile of foot, he completed the trail in fine time, and is hoping for more hiking this season. He is eager to celebrate Catholic Schools Week, and wonders whether he qualifies for Confirmation this year – or is that even a possibility for him?
